A little note from us

We are so happy you are coming to celebrate with us! With a full wedding programme from Thursday to Saturday, we have kept this guide short.

These are a few favourites for extra days in Valle, or free moments outside the wedding schedule.

EAT & DRINK

Good food, slow afternoons & one more glass.

WEDDING WEEKEND

EAT & DRINK

WANDER & EXPLORE

In Avandaro

Soul Avándaro

Burgers on Avenida del Carmen. Try the fondue burger and the esquites with ribeye.

Tani Omakase

An intimate Japanese tasting-menu experience. Confirm the Avándaro location and current seatings before booking.

Degustando

Spanish home cooking upstairs at Plaza Andaro: paella, croquetas, jamón and a lovely wine list.

Dipao

A Valle classic for wood-fired pizza, fresh pasta and artichokes, with locations in Avándaro and Centro.

Altitud 1700

Brunch, crepes and coffee, followed by cocktails later on. Try the honey-bacon waffle.

Lake & countryside

Los Veleros

A lakeside classic on La Costera: Vallesano cooking, wood-smoke flavours and lovely views over the water.

Panadería San Simón

A countryside bakery in San Simón el Alto, around 30 minutes away. Sourdough, pizza and wine in the garden; the last stretch is a dirt road.

Mercado San Ramón

Opposite Rancho Avándaro: a gourmet market and garden terrace for grilled octopus, fine cuts and house-made pasta.

A little toast

Drinks at San Ramón

Stay for a cocktail or a glass of wine in the garden, then pick up bread, cheese and a bottle from the deli.

Make time for lunch

Reserve popular tables for the weekend and check current opening hours. Tap a place name for Maps or its website.

A small shortlist from us, for any free moments around the wedding.

WANDER & EXPLORE

Cobblestones, forest paths & a little lake time.

WEDDING WEEKEND

EAT & DRINK

WANDER & EXPLORE

Centro & the lake

Plaza Independencia

Start at the main square: the kiosk, portales and stone Parroquia de San Francisco de Asís.

Santa María Ahuacatlán

Wander the oldest neighbourhood and visit the church of the Cristo Negro.

Mercado de Artesanías

Browse pottery, embroidery, Mazahua textiles and carved wooden pieces near the centre.

Malecón & Embarcadero

Walk the waterfront at sunset, or arrange a boat outing from the municipal pier.

Avandaro, slowly

Avenida del Carmen

Cafes, small plazas and an ice cream or nieve for a late-afternoon walk.

Plaza Andaro & concept shops

Stone, wood and forest views, with design, homeware and fashion shops nearby.

La Peña & Monte Alto

Mirador La Peña

A short, steep climb over rocky ground rewards you with wide views of the town and lake.

Monte Alto

Head into the forest reserve for walking trails and mountain biking among the pines.

Tandem paragliding

Fly with a certified pilot from La Torre in Monte Alto and land near the lake. Arrange transport and timing with the operator.

An easy evening

A stroll, an ice cream, then dinner nearby. Tap below for our food picks.

BACK TO EAT & DRINK

Wear shoes with good grip for cobblestones and trails. Paragliding depends on the wind; book with a certified operator.

Nos vemos en Valle

Thank you for travelling to celebrate with us.

We cannot wait to share this beautiful place with you. With love, Paulina & Carlo
